

LANDSCAPES AND THE ENVIRONMENT Conference Programme

6-7 June 2019

DAY 1

9.15-9.45 Registration & Coffee

9.45-10.00 Welcome & introduction

10.00-10.55: Session 1: Convent & place

1. Caroline Bowden: Gardens and Plants in the convents of the Augustinian Canonesses in Exile (1600-1800)
2. Laura Wood : 'Amongst the Nuns': Vowesses in Convent Spaces

11.00-11.30 Break

11.30-12.25: Session 2: Writing about landscapes, letters

1. Maria Patricia Williams: Land, Sea, Sky and Much More: Mother Cabrini's Travel Letters 1890-1912
2. Dr Roberta Anderson: 'No one seems to notice the dress': Three Benedictines at large in Hastings

12.30-1.30 (Lunch)

13.30-14.50: Session 3: Landscape networks

- 1- Deirdre Bennett: Landscape, Environment and Presentation Sisters in Nineteenth-Century Ireland
- 2- Catherine Nowlan-Roebuck: Convent schools as places of education: The development of Presentation convent schools in nineteenth-century Ireland
- 3- Ruth Ferris & Deirdre Raftery: The transnational landscapes of Loreto schools in the nineteenth century: topographies of female leadership and mobility

LANDSCAPES AND THE ENVIRONMENT

14.50-15.15 Break

15.15- 16.10: 4 Session: Geography, mapping and reconstruction

1. María Ferrer-Vidal Díaz del Riguero: Freilas and cattle paths: the territorial domain of Santa Eufemia de Cozuelos
2. Ester Penas González: The Hydraulic System of "Las Huelgas de Burgos" Reserve (1187-1836): Notes for an Historical and Archaeological Reconstruction of a Changing Landscape

16.15-16.45: HWRBI discussion

Close and out the door no later than 17.00

6-8 Dinner TBA

LANDSCAPES AND THE ENVIRONMENT

DAY 2

9.30-10.45: Session 1: Stewardship, and entrepreneurship

1. Francesca Terraccia: Monastic entrepreneurship. Nuns involved in estate management in Early Modern Diocese of Milan
2. Tonya J. Moutray: Farming the Future: Agrarian Stewardship and the Community of St. Mary (Eastern Province), New York and Malawi
3. Claire L. Halstead: Traversing Tradition: The Landscapes of the Sisters of Service, a Canadian Catholic Community of Women Religious (1922-2011)

10.45-11.00 Break

11-11.12: Session 2: Geography, mapping and reconstruction

1. Angelika Hansert: Design or accident? Temporal and regional geography of particular female religious houses in the archdiocese of Freiburg, 1846 to pre-Vat. II, via QGIS
3. María del Prado Rodríguez Romero: Female religious landscapes in the centre of the medieval Castile at the end of the Middle Ages

12.00-13.00 Lunch

13.00-14.15: Session 3: Landscapes & Memory

1. Teresa Pilgrim: Ecofeminism: miracles and monstrosity in the landscapes of women in Beowulf and The Royal Kentish Legend
2. David Carrillo-Rangel: Turning disadvantages in oddkin: Attitudes of the Brigittines of Syon Abbey during and after the Marian Restoration.
3. Virginia Bainbridge: Syon Abbey, from a palace of prayer to poverty and back again: estates, buildings, and patronage before and after exile c.1415-1600

14.15-15.00 Closing remarks

LANDSCAPES AND THE ENVIRONMENT

DAY 3

There may be an additional event on Saturday –Nun’s Walk –around London.

TBC

DRAFT